

Our Topics

PopDigest

Diversity in Partnership Dynamics

How much do immigrants and their descendants in Sweden differ from native Swedes in their marriage formation, divorce and re-marriage? Read more

News

International Migration under the Microscope

Population Europe reseachers Frans Willekens & Cris Beauchemin, and two other experts on migration summarise for Science the current state of knowledge.

Read more

Blog

Once a European, Always a European

A post by Erich Striessnig from the Wittgenstein Centre on the Population Europe blog "Population & Policy Bites".

Read more

Publication

Policy Brief: Vulnerability in Times of Family Diversity

A new policy brief on vulnerable families based on research from the collaborative FamiliesAndSocieties Project.

PopDigest

Caring for Older Parents – Is it a Matter of Social Norms?

In a recent study, Cornelia Mureşan and Paul-Teodor Hărăguş investigated how norms of filial responsibility influence adult children to provide support to their ageing parents in several Central and Eastern European (CEE) countries compared to Western Europe. Read more

Publication

Population Insights No. 4

Laura Bernardi argues that in order to complete the gender revolution, it is now time to fight for men's equal rights within families; Vegard Skirbekk shows that education plays a crucial role in preventing obesity; and, Elke Loichinger & Daniela Weber analyse whether the years gained through increasing life expectancy are used productively. Read more

Blog

Mind the Gap

A new post on the Population Europe blog "Population & Policy Bites" by Athina Vlachantoni on the mechanisms that leave ethnic minorities in the United Kingdom under-pensioned.

Read more

News

Impressions from the Population Europe Exhibition in The Hague

The Population Europe Exhibition "How to get to 100 - and enjoy it" was on display at the Stadhuis in the Hague, Netherlands from May 23rd until July 3rd.

Read more

Books and Reports

Recruiting Immigrant Workers: Europe 2016

The OECD series Recruiting Immigrant Workers comprises country studies of labour migration policies. Each volume analyses whether migration policy is being used effectively and efficiently to help meet labour needs, without adverse effects on labour markets. Read more

Event Review

Implication of Brexit for EU Migrants

On 10 May 2016, the Centre for Population Change CPC held two meetings in Westminster/London. Population Europe was a co-organiser of these events. The CPC research teams presented their interim findings, followed by questions and discussion which will feed into their continuing research. Read more

Books and Reports

European Policy Brief: Intergenerational Linkages in the Family

This policy brief highlights recent research findings from the project FamiliesAndSocieties on the role of laws and policies in shaping gendered interdependencies in families; the way the "sandwich generation" cares for older parents across countries; transfers in Europe... Read more

Call for Papers

New Pressures on Cities and Regions

The 2016 Winter Conference of the Regional Studies Association provides an intellectual and policy-relevant platform for scholars around the world to address the new and emerging challenges facing cities and regions.

PopDigest

Disadvantaged for being the Youngest?

How does a child's birth month affect their chances of success in primary school? And to what extent is their success dependent on their socioeconomic background? In this study, Fabrizio Bernardi explores the chances of students to be successfully promoted after every grade in primary school in France. Read more

News

ERC Advanced Grants for Population Europe Researchers

The European Research Council (ERC) has announced the awarding of its prestigious Advanced Grants to 277 senior researchers. Among the grantees are two senior Population Europe researchers: Prof. Francesco Billari and Prof. Arnstein Aassve.

Read more

Call for Papers

Families and Societies at the Crossroads

For a special collection devoted to research from the FamiliesAndSocieties project we invite proposals for papers which investigate different aspects of family change and their consequences for European societies in the new millennium.

Read more

Call for Papers

Dutch Demography Day 2016

On 23 November 2016, the Netherlands Demographic Society (NVD) is organizing the 9th Dutch Demography Day in the Academy Building of Utrecht University. The most recent findings in the broad and interdisciplinary field of population studies will be presented. Read more

News

European Commission launches Knowledge Centre for Migration and Demography

The KCMD is a new European Commission initiative on better knowledge management for sound EU policy making. The KCMD aims to be the point of reference to support the work of Commission services and Member States on migration and related issues.

Read more

Books and Reports

Integrating Population Issues into Sustainable Development

This report was prepared by the Population Division of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat. It is one of three reports that have been produced to guide the Commission's deliberations.

Read more

Call for Papers

ECSR 1st Thematic Workshop - Demography and Inequality

The workshop aims to bring together demographers and sociologist to discuss the relationship between core demographic processes (fertility, migration, mortality & health) and social inequality.

Read more

11 Aug. 16

29

Aug. 16

Workshop on Welfare Inequalities and Migration – 18th Nordic Migration Conference

The University of Oslo in cooperation with Nordic Migration Research and the Norwegian Network for Migration Research welcomes you to The 18th Nordic Migration Conference. This interdisciplinary and international conference takes place every two years, and will this time take place in Oslo. Read more

Event

Event

The 10th WDA Forum will address the overarching theme «Our Next World». The congress outlines the many factors that will significantly influence the ongoing and irreversible changes to the global population dynamics of the 21st century.

Read more

Event

European Population Conference 2016

The next European Population Conference to be held in Mainz, Germany, 31 August -3 September 2016 (EPC2016). EPC2016 is a general scientific population conference where the topic "Demographic Change and Policy Implications" will receive special attention. Read more

Event

4th Annual FamiliesAndSocieties Stakeholder Seminar: Policies for Families: Is there a Best Practice?

Experts will discuss in a confidential atmosphere the most recent findings of the project FamiliesAndSocieties. What are the current trends in social policies related to families in Europe? Are there best practices to be followed by countries? What are the most important areas for future policy interventions? Read more

All News All Pop Digests

All Events

If you are interested in new publications, please check the section books and reports on our website.

If you are interested in career and study opportunities, please check the section study & career.

Please inform us if you do not want to receive this quarterly newsletter. press@population-europe.eu

Imprint

Dr Harald Wilkoszewski Head of the Information Centre

Population Europe | Brussels Office Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research Fon + 32 2250 1419 Fax + 32 2250 1420 E-Mail press@population-europe.eu

Secretariat + 49 30 2061 383 - 30

Population Europe was founded in 2009 and has been supported by the European Commission since January 2010. As a collaborative network it provides comprehensive knowledge, information, and insights into fundamental demographic trends and diverging population developments. This expertise is key to understanding the political, social, and economic developments of Europe in the 21st century.

This mail has been sent through the MPI for Demographic Research. Should you receive a mail that is apparently from a MPI user without this text displayed, then the address has most likely been faked. If you are uncertain about the validity of this message, please check the mail header or ask your system administrator for assistance.